PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR HEARING AND EXPEDITED BRIEFING SCHEDULE ON PLAINTIFFS' EMERGENCY MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Plaintiffs pursuant Local Rule 7.1(D) & (E) request an Oral Argument and an expedited briefing schedule on the Plaintiffs' Emergency Motion for Preliminary Injunction. As explained in Plaintiffs' Emergency Motion for Preliminary Injunction, Defendants in this case are currently administering an unconscionable, coercive, and discriminatory claims process, which denies access to anyone who has spoken to or retained an attorney. This process prevents disaster victims who have contacted an attorney to get the immediate, interim relief necessary to keep their businesses a-float. Because the harm is already occurring, and will not cease until the Court steps in to ensure that the Defendants are not utilizing the claims process simply to extinguish desperate victims' claims against it as quickly and as cheaply as possible.

Accordingly, Plaintiffs request a hearing on this Motion on or before June 4, 2010, or at the Court's earliest convenience, and an expedited briefing schedule. Plaintiffs suggest the following dates for the expedited briefing: (1) Defendants' Response brief due on or before Thursday, May 27, 2010; (2) Plaintiffs' Reply brief, if any, due on or before Wednesday, June 2, 2010.

Respectfully submitted this 21st day of May, 2010.
